

If you are a BC organization that commits to putting BC's children and youth first by working towards the 4 Keys To Success for Children and Youth, we invite you to join First Call: BC Child and Youth Advocacy Coalition!

MEMBERS BENEFIT BY:

- ❑ Being a part of a strong and effective cross-sectoral coalition of provincial and regional organizations putting children and youth first through public education, community mobilization and public policy advocacy
- ❑ Staying up to date on key issues affecting BC's children and youth by receiving First Call's e-newsletter The Child and Youth Advocate and the coalition's work by receiving First Call monthly updates
- ❑ Receiving resources to help you in your advocacy such as election toolkits, research reports, policy briefs and fact sheets

AS A MEMBER YOU CAN DEMONSTRATE YOUR SUPPORT BY:

- ❑ Directing the work of the coalition by participating in coalition meetings, providing feedback on emerging issues and, when necessary, voting on coalition decisions
- ❑ Participating in First Call campaigns, working groups and committees
- ❑ Promoting the coalition and our calls to action among your members and networks through your newsletters, publications, meetings and events
- ❑ Keeping your fellow coalition members informed by adding info@firstcallbc.org to your mailing list for newsletters and press releases and sending submissions to First Call's e-newsletter The Child and Youth Advocate
- ❑ Displaying your "First Call member" decal on your website, publications and in your workplace
- ❑ Supporting the coalition's work yearly with financial and in-kind contributions

“As members of First Call: BC Child and Youth Advocacy Coalition we commit to putting BC’s children and youth first by working towards the 4 Keys to Success for Children and Youth.”
